JOSIAH TURNER, JR., EDITOR.

SUICIDE OF MAJOR JOSEPH M. WALTERS.

The SENTINEL has already informed its readers of the suicide on Friday last, of Major Joseph M. Walters, proprietor of the National Hotel at Norfolk. The Norfolk Journal states that early Friday morning all Norfolk was startled and shocked by rumors that Major Walters had been detected the day before in forgeries to a considerable extent, and that he had gone into the country, as was supposed, for the purpose of committing suicide. On Thursday the fact became known that he had forged the name of Messrs. C. W. Grandy & Son to a check for $950 which he had passed to Capt. W. L. Oswald, to an acceptance for $1,452.50 and to two notes for $500 each, which he had [illegible] to Judge H. Johnston, Esq.

It has been ascertained that paper forged by Walters is held by the following parties and to the following amounts:

Jas. H. Johnston,	about	$2,500
W. L. Oswald,	"	2,500
R. H. Clements,	"	1,000
Hymans & Dancy,	"	600
Sam'l Kimberly,	"	850

There are other transactions not yet made public, which will considerably swell the above amount.

Rumors of these facts having leaked out on Thursday night, legal steps were immediately taken by some of Mr. W.'s creditors, and the property at the hotel was levied on.

In the meantime Maj. W. had left, his hotel in a buggy between 3 and 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, stating that he was going out to his farm, 6 miles from the city. On Friday morning Mr. Robt. Cooper, barkeeper at the National, went out to Major Walters' farm to apprize him of the levy upon the hotel, and not finding him there proceeded to Mr. Van Wyck's farm, some two or three miles farther where he found him and gave him the information. Maj. Walters wrote four letters which he entrusted to Mr. Cooper for delivery. One of these letters was to his wife; one to Col. T. J. Corprew; one to C. W. Grandy, Jr., and one to W. Hunter Saunders.

Mr. Cooper knew nothing of the contents of these letters and had no suspicion that Maj. Walters contemplated suicide, as he was perfectly calm and collected in his intercourse with him. Mr. Cooper returned at about 10 o'clock, A. M., and delivered the letters which conveyed the intelligence of Maj. Walters' intention to destroy himself. Parties were immediately sent out to find him, and, if possible, prevent the accomplishment of the desperate intent; but they were unfortunately too late.

About an hour after Mr. Cooper had reached the city Mr. Van Wyck arrived with the sad intelligence that Maj. Walters had already killed himself.

Shortly after Mr. Cooper had left, Maj. Walters borrowed a carbine from Mr. Van Wyck, intimating that he was going out duck shooting, and going some four hundred yards from the house, he deliberately put the muzzle of the carbine to his throat and discharged the gun, killing himself instantly. The ball entered the left side of the throat and came out at the top of the head, making a ghastly wound, and tearing away a piece of the scalp about an inch in diameter.

The following note, written on a small scrap of paper, was found near the body:

Dear Van—I killed myself, being afraid to face my wife and family. Inform my wife. JOE.

The body was brought to Norfolk Friday night, and the funeral took place on Saturday.

Maj. W. was about 32 or 33 years of age, and was married about four years ago to a most estimable lady, upon whom this terrible blow falls with crushing force. He leaves one child, about four months old.

We learn that his life was insured in the Globe Mutual, of New York, for $5,000, and in the Manhattan Life for $10,000—in both instances for the benefit of his wife. Maj. Walters had always enjoyed an excellent reputation as a high-minded and honorable man. He was sober, industrious and attentive to his business, and was exceedingly popular as a hotel keeper, in which avocation he was very successful.—Some two years ago he became very much involved by unfortunate speculations in cotton, in which he lost heavily. His pecuniary embarrassments, which have been very pressing since that time, no doubt led him to commit the guilty deeds which he has so fearfully expiated.

Admiral Porter, having been so effectually bottled up by the expose of his letter upon Grant, now attempts driving the cork out and getting on a head again by publishing extracts from his private journal, written during the war. The first batch appears in the Washington Chronicle of the 5th inst., and is full of complimentary allusions to Grant, telling how modestly he deported himself, what bull-dog courage he possessed, what extraordinary judment he exhibited, how well he understood men, and how full he was of all heroic virtues. Unfortunately for Admiral Porter's side of the case, the dates of these notes are all omitted, and we are left in doubt whether his high estimation of Grant existed before the Fort Fisher letter was written, or subsequent. Their general tone, and the incidents referred to, indicate an anterior indictement, and the only conclusion left the public to arrive at is, that Admiral Porter claims and possesses a wonderful elasticity of opinion that the same case with which his mind changed from admiration to detestation of Grant can be invoked now to recall that denunciation, nursing his admiration into the proportions of a religious worship.

The next Legislature of Georgia will elect a United States Senator. A correspondent of The Cincinnati Commercial, writing from Atlanta, says: "The innocent reader who is aware of the fact that seven Senators have already been elected from this State since the war, and that not one has yet got in, would naturally inquire what we want with any more. We love to have them around. If we can't have two in, like other States, we will get the better of them by having half a dozen or more out. The case now stands this way: Last Spring Hodgett, Farrow, and Whitely were elected for the long, the short, and the unexpired terms. The unexpired term will be out next March. The short term will be out in 1872. It therefore devolves upon the next Legislature to elect a man to go in 1872. Bullock has just returned from Washington, and it is rumored here that he will be a candidate. If the new Legislature is Republican, he will stand a chance to get it. Whitely, whose time is out next March, although up to this writing he has not got in, is determined to be provided for, and is running for the XLIst and the XLIId Congresses."

110 Awards Drawn.

Whole Certificates, $5; Halves $2 50; Quarters, $1 25.

WHAT THE CITY PRESS SAY:

PRIZE DRAWING.—Quite a crowd assembled at the Theatre yesterday noon, to witness the Grand Drawing of the North Carolina Beneficial Association. There were 100 prizes in all, and little rolls of paper separating these were placed in a wheel on one side, while the tickets were in another wheel opposite to the former. Between the two was a table, at which sat the Judges and Mr. John London, Commissioner. The wheels were made with glass sides, so that everything within them could be seen and were securely locked, until the drawing began. This was done by means of two little boys, who were securely blindfolded, one drawing a number from one of the wheels and the other the prize to correspond with it. There is no question but that the drawing was done in a perfectly fair and just manner.—Wilmington Daily Journal, Dec. 2nd.

THE GRAND DRAWING YESTERDAY.—The grand single number distribution of the N. C. Beneficial Association, which took place at the Theatre yesterday, at 1 o'clock, was the all-absorbing theme during the day. The drawing took place in public, a committee having been selected from the audience to act with the Commissioner in keeping an account of the same and to see that it was conducted fairly. Quite a respectable crowd was present to witness the drawing. The following numbers drew the principal prizes: No 4810, $5,000; No. 6000, $2,500; No. 5770, $2,500; No. 2842, $2,000; No. 1407, $2,000; No. 4042, $1,000; No. 1486, $700. OXFORD HIGH SCHOOL,

Oxford, N. C.

J. H. HORNER, } Associate Principals.
R. H. GRAVES, }

THIS SCHOOL, which has been for the last twenty years under the exclusive charge of J. H. Horner, will henceforth be conducted under the joint supervision of the above principals, with competent assistant instructors in every department.

The course of study has been extended, and boys will be thoroughly fitted for advanced classes in College, especial reference being had to the qualifications requisite to admission into the Senior classes in the University of Virginia, or Washington Lee University. The latter of which has again conferred upon the school the honor of a scholarship in that Institution.

A regular course of study in Natural Science, Commercial Science and the Modern Languages has been added to the school for those students who, desiring to acquire only a complete business education may wish to substitute these studies for Latin and Greek.

No pains will be spared to render the instruction in the school efficient and to furnish to students the most ample facilities for thorough preparation for College or for the acquisition of a good business education; and the principals flatter themselves that their long and successful career as teachers is a sufficient guarantee that the school will be in all respects worthy the public confidence and support.

The Spring Session will open the second Monday in January.

Circulars containing terms and full particulars furnished upon application to either of the principals.

THE GREATER SUBORDINATES THE LESS.

The great heroes of the world overshadow the small ones, just as the great scoundrels throw the little scoundrels in the shade.

At the last term of Orange Superior Court, Gov. Holden, Capt. Hancock, Col. Kirk, Col. Dungen, and Alexander Ruffin, colored, were indicted by the Grand Jury for an assault and battery committed on the person of the editor of this paper, with deadly weapons. This is a penitentiary offence. These parties cannot escape conviction nor the penitentiary, if the law be justly administered.

A capias was issued for the arrest of the parties, but nearly all the great scoundrels have escaped. Capt. Hancock has been arrested and bound for his appearance at next term of Orange court. Alexander Ruffin was arrested a month ago, and has been lying in Graham jail ever since, for want of bail. Timothy Lee has not yet arrested the Governor, as the law directs him to do; he seems to be either afraid of His Excellency, or is determined to disregard a plain official duty; or it may be he thinks he has plenty of time before court.

Ruffin, on his arrest, appled to his white brethren of the league, to go his bail, but they refused.

The Governor, who is the greater scoundrel, armed this smaller scoundrel and sent him to arrest us; he, the Governor, Stephen White, Bed-Eye and Clerk Bill Albright basely abandoned the poor ignorant negro, and allowed him to lie in jail for doing what the Governor ordered him to do.

On going to Graham court last week, we found the negro Ruffin, in the iron cage of the jail; the same one in which the Governor had us confined last summer, with the negro who was to be hung a few days after.

Ruffin said that Kirk threatened to kill him if he refused to go and execute the Governor's orders, and accordingly he went. We felt that there was such gross injustice in imprisoning this smaller, and allowing the greater scoundrels to go at large, that we became bail for Ruffin and had him released.

This negro, we know, did not deserve such clemency, for he was exceedingly offensive to the people of Alamance, while clothed in Holden's regimentals. He searched the houses of some, presented pistols at the heads of others, and in one instance, we have learned to day, presented a pistol at the head of a lady and threatened to blow her brains out unless she immediately provided him something to eat. If we had heard of this last fact sooner, we don't think we should have gone his bail.

The Governor and the Chief Justice we regard as the great criminals in this transaction. Next to them come Pool, Abbott, Scott, Phillips, Brogden, Billy Smith, Welker, Stephen White and such others as looked on in silent acquiescence on the outrages ordered by Holden, in which he was "substantially sustained" by Judge Pearson; and in the third class we place Kirk and Burgen. The fourth class will include such as Alexander Ruffin and all the soldiers, black and white, who were made instruments—in most cases ignorant though brutish instruments—in the execution of Holden's nefarious schemes.

"FOOLS BUILD HOUSES FOR WISE MEN TO LIVE IN."

Our Radical friends are continually complaining of the Democracy for "accepting the situation." They complained because Democrats would not, and now because they do.

The Radicals denied negro suffrage upon the Southern States through unconstitutional means. Because the means by which it was proposed to establish it was unlawful, the Democracy opposed it; but after the proposition was submitted to the sovereign rulers of the country, and they accepted it as a practically established fact, then the Democracy submitted, as they have ever done, to the will of the majority. And as they were honest in their opposition, so they are honest in their submission. The colored people appreciate the integrity of purpose of their own people; and they are also beginning to learn that if the Radical party would perpetrate an unlawful act, to give them their rights for its own selfish interests, it may, if an occasion presents itself, undertake by the same mode, same measure which might abridge their privileges. If it would again be to its interest so to do.—Therefore, they are rapidly leaving the error of their ways, and are going over to their true and only friends—the Democracy of the South. Of this the Radicals complain; think it an outrage that after they have done so much for the negro he should go over to the democracy. To this we simply say, "fools build houses for wise men to live in."

PRESIDENT GRANT.

"He patronized scores of adventurers, without home or name, who made slander of Southern society a trade and a calling, for the express purpose of creating for himself, by means so treacherous and seditious, colorable pretexts for brandishing the Federal sword over law-abiding communities."

This is a paragraph from an able article in a recent issue of the Washington City Patriot, upon the official conduct of President Grant since his accession to the Presidency. We have only to look at the conduct of the President towards North Carolina, to establish the truth of this assertion.

All are familiar with the conduct of the President during the last summer in relation to the affairs of our State. Gov. Holden, U. S. Senators Pool and Abbott, Judge Pearson and others, put on foot a plan for the calling out, by the Governor, and the use of militia on the day of the election.—It was also determined that certain prominent gentlemen should be arrested and incarcerated just prior to the election, denying them recourse to the law, ostensibly to put down a certain secret society, but really to so intimidate the voters of the opposition party, that they would fail to cast their suffrages against the administration and men who had so injured, oppressed and misrepresented them. Appeals to our State Judiciary were unavailing, for, as Gov. Holden said in one of his letters, "Judge Pearson practically sustained" him.

So, while the illegal measures were being carried out, and many of our most respectable citizens were being arrested and imprisoned, maltreated, hung up by the neck, and otherwise tortured, without being confronted by their accusers, or knowing for what they were being subjected to such ill treatment, and denied investigation, but upon the contrary, threatened with trial by a military Court martial; while this was being done, a gentleman, well known to the whole country for valuable services rendered it in days gone by—who had the confidence and respect of every good and honest man in the State, and, as far as he was known, throughout the United States, we allude to the late Hon. Bedford Brown—proceeded to Washington to see President Grant relative to the matter, and to see if he could not persuade him to use his influence in putting a stop to these outrages. The President, while treating Mr. B. with courtesy, gave him to understand that he would sustain the Governor in his actions; and he did so, by sending Companies of United States troops into the State. He listened to Gov. Holden, John Pool and Abbott, who have made "slander of the people of the State a trade and a calling," instead of such men as Bedford Brown, and men of his stamp.

But thanks to a kind Providence, the people rose up in their own strength, and rebuked the President, the Governor, and Judge Pearson, by nearly five thousand majority, as against a majority of twelve thousand in their favor a few months before. Missouri has rebuked by forty thousand majority, the arbitrary use of power by President Grant; and other States are wheeling into line.

This is the President that was elected by the people of the country, by an overwhelming majority, in order that peace might be restored. But as Emperor (then President) Napoleon said in France, in 1851, the "Empire is Peace," so, doubtless, President Grant thinks in the United States, in 1870.

The Patriot goes on to say:

"He rejected, under the advice of demagogues, desperate of place and plunder in the event of peace, or of others shuddering in prospect of criminal sentence in the restored South, recommendations of wisdom and mercy, proposed from time to time by his ablest and most respectable supporters from that section.

He has on all occasions manifested a most unseemly impatience whenever circumstances invoked his high magisterial civil functions, and treated with distrust every party adherent professing faith in the Constitution. He has, without decency or dignity of office, habitually signalized his unreserved contempt for civil rights, civil courts, and civil government.

He has authorized members of his administration to threaten the people of sovereign States to their faces with military punishment, should they presume to adopt the interpretations of their own courts of law regulating their own elections.

He actually invaded the great States of New York and Pennsylvania, and, through his multiplied agents and military subordinates, usurped control over the two largest cities of the country, and policed them with troops, for the alternative purpose of coercing free suffrage or of inciting freemen to resistance, which could afford a pretext for establishing armed possession of the States and cities of the North.

He has magnified the military prerogative of a supreme civil ruler beyond all modern precedent, even to inducting the army into the special Executive confidence, and converting the mansion of the President of the United States into a soldier's barrack.

Is this the man who said, "Let us have peace?" Such is his peace—a peace that makes men sigh and women weep; that reopens personal feuds, revives the lust of lawless adventure, and broadens the grin of rejoicing malevolence."

BRO. WELKER AND THE STANDARD'S KU KLUX.

Here is what Bro. Welker, of the Greensboro' Republican, says about, and to the Standard, about its frequent Ku Klux misrepresentations:

The Standard learns that Mrs. Barrett's barn, in this place, was burned by Ku Klux.

"If the Standard's informant had had any regard for truth, respect for himself, or good will for the Standard—he would have said that on Thursday night last the Livery Stable kept by Mr. Edmondson, in this place, and owned by Dr. Benbow, was set on fire by an incendiary, and was speedily consumed. Suspicion, we learn, rests upon a negro who had been discharged by Mr. Edmondson for remiss of duty, and who has not been seen since the fire. This is the sum total of the affair.

"We are sorry to see that tendency to misrepresent things, and our cotemporaries should, in all such cases of imposition, publish the name of the author that the public might know who it is that would stir up strife and discord in the community."

This last paragraph we commend to the very dignified, impartial and correct editors of the Standard. Let the pious Pilgrim take the advice of his "brother in Israel," and live up to it.

ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY.

This is the number of negroes who voted illegally at Graham, in the late election, so we are informed. Some were from Orange, some from Granville, and some from Wayne. The week of the election there were so many as forty-eight hands on one gravel train, on the North Carolina Railroad, of which Maj. Smith is President. One of the hands belonging to the train told us so, and we believe it.

A citizen of Guilford tells us that, at Gibsonville, two days before the election, he counted forty-two negroes unloading a wood-train. A few days after the election these supernumeraries were discharged. The negroes say they were promised $15 per month after the election, but instead of getting it they were discharged. We know those who make this charge, and they confess to having voted illegally. We warn our Guilford friends to be on the lookout for a repetition of these frauds. The law allows you now to challenge at the polls, and requires each man to vote in the township in which he lives. No certificates of registration to be given at all.

Governor Holden designated the 14th day of January as the day of election, we believe, for the purpose of giving Billy Smith time to put additional hands on the railroad, in Alamance and Guilford, and vote them as he did in the last election.

We advise our friends to be on the alert, prevent fraudulent voting, preserve order, and elect, by an overwhelming majority, Messrs. Graham and McAlister.

The election takes place the 24th inst., and let every man be at his post and do his duty.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

SIXTY SESSION.

FRIDAY, Dec. 16, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 7.15.

On motion of Mr. McClammy, the rules were suspended for the purpose of taking up the following bills, to-wit:

Bill to amend the charter of the the town of Fayetteville, and a

Bill in relation to the city of Wilmington, both of which, were amended, and passed their several readings.

Mr. Bellamy moved a reconsideration of the vote, by which the Wilmington bill passed.

Mr. McClammy moved to lay the motion on the table, which prevailed.

Mr. Graham moved a suspension of the rules for the purpose of taking up the bill to amend the charter of the city of Raleigh. Bill to amend the charter of the town of Goldsboro, and bill to amend the charter of the town of Elizabeth city, the motion was lost.

On motion of Mr. Graham the bill regulating Salaries and Fees was taken up.

The bill fixes the salary of the Attorney at $1,000 per annum and fees.

Mr. Graham moved to strike out $1,000 and insert $2,000.

Pending its consideration the Senate adjourned.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Dec. 17, 1870.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Atkinson of this city.

On motion of Mr. No mcat, the special order was postponed for the purpose of taking up a bill declaratory of the meaning of the act entitled an act to repeal certain acts passed at the session of 1868-'69, making appropriations to Railroad Companies, ratified on the 8th day of March, 1870, and for other purposes, and the bill passed its second reading.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill to be entitled an act concerning a Convention of the people.

Section 2 provides that the counties of Hyde and Carteret shall be allowed until Tuesday after the election to make their returns.

On motion of Mr. Speed, the county of "Dare" was also included.

Line 18 down to 24 of section 10 reads as follows:

"Nor shall said Convention pass any ordinance, or propose any amendment to the Constitution of this State, which shall in any wise provide for payment (by the State) to the late slave holders of the State, or any other person, for the loss sustained by them by reason of the emancipation of said slaves."

On motion of Mr. Lehman, it was amended by striking out "by the State."

Section 11 reads as follows, to-wit:

"That said Convention may revise the constitution of the State, embodying in it such alterations and amendments as may be agreed upon, but no such revised constitution shall have any force or validity until the same shall have been ratified by a majority of the qualified voters (or members of the General Assembly,) to whom the same shall be submitted according to the mode to be prescribed by ordinance of said Convention."

On motion of Mr. Robbins of Rowan, it was amended by adding after the word "upon," "not inconsistent with the provisions of this act" and

On motion of Mr. Cowles it was amended by striking out "or members of the General Assembly" and inserting in lieu thereof "of the State."

Section 15 reads as follows to-wit:

That the State Printer shall immediately print ten copies of this act for each Senator and member of the House of Representatives, and shall print and transmit by mail, forty copies to the Board of Commissioners for each county whose duty it shall be to furnish one copy to each registrar in their respective counties and one copy to the inspectors of election at each precinct.

On motion of Mr. Cowles, it was amended by adding at the end of the section, "before the day of election."

Mr. Love offered the following amendment to section 10, (and urged its adoption,) to come in at the end of said section, to-wit:

"Nor shall said Convention have any power to rescind, change, modify, amend or in any way interfere with the following clause in article 5, section 5, of the present constitution, to-wit: "The General Assembly shall have no power to give or lend the credit of the State, in aid of any person, association or corporation except to aid in the completion of such railroads as may be unfinished at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, or in which the State has a direct pecuniary interest, unless the subject be submitted to a vote of the people of the State, and be approved by a majority of those who shall vote thereon."

Mr. Robbins of Rowan, opposed this amendment on the ground that it was unjust, in that it gave an advantage to one section over another, and thought it was best to say nothing in relation to Railroad matters in the bill. While he was up he desired to allude to the position some Senators had taken by constantly insisting that the Legislature was calling the Convention through this bill, he insisted that the General Assembly did not propose to call a Convention itself, nor to impose restrictions upon that Convention by their authority merely. They only propose to submit to the sovereign people the question whether they will call a Convention upon the basis of this bill. If they vote yeas, then they ratify this act, they call a Convention, and they impose upon said Convention the restrictions, as well as the duties prescribed in this act.

This act, with all its features, then will speak the voice of the sovereign people, and no Convention can or will disregard it. A Convention has only a delegated sovereignty; the people possess the original sovereignty, and can impose upon their delegates, whether to a Convention or anything else, any limitations of power they please. It would be most absurd to suppose that any Convention is so sovereign that it can rise above the people who elected and constituted it, and from whom alone the Convention derives all its powers.

The vote was taken on the amendment of Mr. Love and it was rejected.

Mr. Battle moved to amend the 10th section where it reads, "the Convention shall not, in any wise, provide for the payment of any debt or debts contracted in aid of the late rebellion," by striking out the words "of the late rebellion" and insert in lieu thereof, the words "of the late civil war."

Mr. Jones said he had at one time determined, himself, to offer an amendment, striking out the word "rebellion" in the bill now under consideration, but upon reflection he thought that as an approbrious expression of the word had long since lost its force if it ever had any, and we who were sought to be affected by it know that dirt thrown by verbage only befouls the brave engine projecting it. The word had come to be a mere technicality; it was the word used in the section of the Constitution to which this part of the bill referred, and for the sake of distinction and precision he was willing that it should remain in the bill, and hoped that the Senate would not strike it out.

The vote was taken and the amendment was lost.

No other amendment being offered, the Senate proceeded to discuss the merits of the bill.

Messrs. Moore and Lehman spoke at length in opposition to its passage.

Mr. Graham said he thought it time the bill had passed, as the House desired to act upon it before recess, but as a number of Senators desired to be heard on the subject, he hoped the Senate would agree to meet to-night in order to have a free discussion of the bill, so as to be ready to pass it on Monday morning, and to accomplish that purpose moved to lay the bill on the table, which prevailed.

Mr. Graham moved that when the Senate adjourn it adjourn to meet again at 7:30 to-night, which was adopted, and on his motion the bill was taken from the table and made the special order for that hour.

FROM THE HOUSE.

A message was received informing the Senate that the House refuse to concur in the Senate amendment to the House bill fixing the per diem and milage of officers and members of the General Assembly.

On motion of Mr. Norment a message was sent to the House informing that body that the Senate refused to rescind former action on the bill, and asked for a committee of conference composed of five members, three on the part of the House and two on the part of the Senate.

The President named Messrs. Norment and Beasley as the Senate branch of said committee.

On motion the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, Dec. 17, 1870.

House called to order at the usual hour.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Atkinson, of the city.

CALENDAR (RESUMED.)

A message was received from the Senate transmitting a bill to repeal certain acts in regard to the town of Fayetteville and for other purposes, and asking the concurrence of the House.

On motion of Mr. Broadfoot, the rules were suspended and the bill was considered at once.

Cawthorne, col., moved to lay the bill on the table.

The yeas and nays were called and the motion was rejected by a vote of yeas 28, nays 55.

Mr. Broadfoot took the floor in explanation and advocacy of the bill.

After the presentation and rejection of innumerable amendments, upon which the yeas and nays were called, by the Republican side of the House, Mr. Broadfoot said as there was some doubt expressed as to the constitutionality of the bill, he would move a reference to the Judiciary Committee. The reference was so ordered.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, the rules were suspended and the bill in relation to per diem and mileage was taken up.

The question recurred upon the Senate amendments to strike out "$5" per day for members and Doorkeepers and insert "$4" per day and strike out "20 cents" mileage and insert "15 cents."

After some debate the House refused to concur in the Senate's amendments by the following ballot:

NAYS—Messrs. Armstrong, Broadfoot, Brown, Bryant of Halifax, Bryan of Jones, Bunn, Buxton, Cawthorne, Chamberlain, Collis, Currie, Dudley, Duckworth, Ellison, Faulkner, Fisher, Fletcher, Garrison, Gatling, Gulick, Gregory, Hampton, Harris of Franklin, Hargrove, Hardy, Henderson, Houston, Johnson of Edgecombe, Jones of Northampton, Jordan, Justice, Kelly of Davie, Kincaide, Lyon, Martin, Mallson, Marler, Morris, Morgan of Montgomery, Newsome, Page, Parrot, Reid, Regan, Robbins, Scott, Settle, Smith of Halifax, Smith of Wayne, Sparrow, Stanford, Stewart, Sykes, Tucker, Waring, Willis, Wilcox, Young, of Wake.

On motion of Mr. Ashe, the rules were suspended and the bill in reference to the City of Wilmington was taken up.

The question recurred upon a concurrence in the Senate amendments.

Mr. Ashe moved a concurrence and, on the motion, called the previous question. The yeas and nays were called and the call for the previous question was sustained by a vote of yeas 51, nays 30.

The motion to concur in the Senate's amendments was put and adopted by a vote of yeas 50, nays 30.

Mr. Crawford moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill providing for a Senatorial election in the 20th district passed its third reading on yesterday.

Mr. Strudwick moved to lay the motion on the table.

The vote being taken the motion to table was adopted by a vote of yeas 44, nays 39.

Mr. Robinson, from the Committee on Enrolment, reported various bills and resolutions as correctly enrolled.

A communication was read from the Treasurer giving information in regard to his office.

By Mr. Johnston of Buncombe: A bill to provide for the election of a keeper of the Capitol, (election to take place on the 21st of December.)

On motion of Mr. Johnston the rules were suspended and the bill passed its several reading.

On motion of Mr. Settle, the rules were suspended and the bill concerning elections in this State, was taken up.

On motion of Mr. Sparrow, the bill and substitute reported by the Committee, were postponed until Tuesday next at 12 M. and ordered to be printed.

Adjourned.

NOTE.—During the discussion on the Fayetteville bill, when the Republican side of the House were offering all sorts of amendments and making all sorts of motions whether applicable or not and calling the yeas and nays in every instance, Mr. Houston said: The expenses of the House on the basis of $5 per day for members, including the per diem of Clerks, Doorkeepers &c., cost of fire wood, printing and incidental expenses are $600 per day; $200 per hour; $100 per half hour and $33 1-3 per minute.

He had ascertained from the House clock that it takes at least ten minutes for each call of the yeas and nays, therefore, one call actually cost the tax payers of the State $33 3-3. While it is not denied that the minority have the constitutional right to call for the yeas and nays and while we do not object to such calls on matters of importance, yet when it is made for the purpose of delay and on matters of little moment, we would remind members of the other side sustaining such a die that they alone are responsible to the tax payers of North Carolina for such unnecessary consumption of time and money.

During the debate on the per diem bill Mr. Nicholson spoke at some length in support of the motion to concur. He said it was a compromise between the five and three dollar men. He had received $4 per day and 10 cents mileage, though he was willing in order to settle the thing at once to have $4 per day and 15 cents mileage.

OFFICE NORTH CAROLINA LAND AGENCY,
B. P. WILLIAMSON'S NEW STORE.

MR. EDITOR, SIR:—I was delighted and agreeably surprised at the liberality of my old associates who have been connected with me in the Land business for the past two years, on reading their notice in to-days paper calling the attention of the public to the advertisement of the North Carolina Land Agency in B. P. Williamsons new Store. I did not make the request; it was voluntary on their part, and shows what an indelible impression I must have made by my indefatigible exertions to induce immigration to our good old State while working in their behalf. I might have expected this from some of the old Directors and officers, but must say I did not think for one moment that the new one from abroad, and the reverend gentlemen of this place would have continued to the charitable fund of advertising for us so soon after their joining the company.

OFFICE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA LAND AGENCY,
B. P. WILLIAMSON'S NEW STORE,
Corner of Fayetteville and Martin Sts.
RALEIGH, N. C., Dec. 1870.

TO LAND OWNERS:—The object of this enterprise since its commencement now nearly two years, has been and will continue to be to induce immigration to our State, and to turn the tide from the great West to our sunny South; also to call their attention to the superior advantages and inducements we hold out over all other States.

Now being the season of the year when farmers and others have leisure to travel, and many are visiting our State, examining farms with a view of purchasing, to come and make their homes with us, we would particularly request all land owners who have land to sell or lease, and wish to find buyers for the same to call at our office or address us as below. There is scarcely a day goes by but what we receive letters making inquiry, and as it costs nothing to try to sell through this Agency, and so many are anxious to find customers that all can avail themselves of this opportunity of offering for sale land of every kind, our charges being only two-and-one-half per cent. on gross amount of sales, amount of advertising and all other expenses included, and this only when a sale is perfected. Many I know have a delicacy in offering their lands, as they do not wish their neighbors to know that their property is on the market. This is prevented in our office, no information given unless we know the parties to be buyers, and we do not advertise any farms or lands within the State unless requested to do so. I have been trying and making every effort since I came here two years ago, to induce our land owners, to divide their large tracts, and sell one half or more to energetic men, with money, at a reasonable price, and on easy terms, to enable them to improve the part they bought. Some have taken my advice, and now the one-half is worth more than the whole was eighteen months ago. This is the true course to be pursued, as but very few buyers from the Northern States want more than from one hundred to three hundred acres in a farm, and will give more in proportion for such tracts, than they will for the large plantations of one thousand and two thousand acres. If you want to encourage immigration, send us a part of your lands for sale, that we may offer such inducements as will bring thousands to our State.

PROF. CHANDLER of New York City, in a lecture delivered by him at Cooper Institute, March 19, 1870, said:
"It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the terrible accidents which have resulted from the use of unsafe kerosene; you have only to read the newspapers from day to day to see them. It is stated by some that these are exaggerated; that these accidents never occur, and that you and I never had a friend burned to death; still we do have an enormous number of terrible accidents from petroleum. In the last seven months of 1869 there were fifty five kerosene accidents in New York, resulting in twenty-three deaths, eighteen serious injuries and fourteen slight ones. The total result for the year 1869, for the City of New York which I myself have cut from newspapers is fifty-two fatal accidents from dangerous kerosene, fifty severe and six slight, in all 108 persons to my knowledge, from my own reading have been injured by kerosene in one year."

Mr. J. E. Ogden, the clever agent of R. Dorsey Ogden, the Lessee of Tucker Hall for this week, advertises the appearance of Sappho tonight, in Offenbach's comic opera, PEPITO; and other attractive features. Don't forget to go, as the performances and performers are highly endorsed by those whom we regard good authority.

THE LOUISBURG MALE ACADEMY Louisburg, N. C., is an old established institution of high reputation and extensive popularity. Mr. M. S. Davis, is an excellent Principal, was President of it for a number of years, most successfully, and satisfactorily. We are pleased to know that its prospects are still encouraging.—See advertisement in another column.

PERSONAL.—Maj. W. T. Sutherlin, President of the Virginia Agricultural Society, is in our city, stopping at the National Hotel.

THE DEAF, DUMB AND BLIND.—On Friday evening we attended an exhibition and concert given by the pupils of the above institution, under the direction of Mr. W. J. Young, one of the efficient instructors therein. By special invitation a number of the members of the Legislature were present.

The programme was varied and well selected, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, by the blind, and various excercises by the Deaf and the Dumb.

They exhibited great progress, and careful training. The entertainment was highly interesting, and enjoyed by all present. At a recent meeting of the Board of Supervisors, Mr. Jno. Nichols was elected Superintendent. He is said to be thoroughly acquainted with the duties of the position, and will assume charge the first of January. Mr. W. J. Young, for some years a teacher in one of the departments, and a most estimable gentleman, and thorough instructor,—Mr. Tillinghast, Mr. Dudley, all exhibited their fitness for their respective positions. Everything passed off pleasantly.

THE SAPPHO BLONDES.—R. Dorsey Ogden, well known in theatrical circles, has engaged Tucker Hall for three nights, commencing to-night, and including Wednesday night, and will present the celebrated Sappho Blondes and Opera Troupe. This Troupe comes with very good endorsation, as to real merit, and as performers whom all ladies and gentlemen can go to see without having their views of decency outraged. Sappho is a little girl of decidedly fascinating manners, and a very meritorious actress.

Of this Troupe, the Richmond Whig a paper in whose judgment we have much confidence, thus speaks:

"Mr. Ogden has offered a greater variety of entertainments this season than any manager who has preceded him. His present "card" is very attractive. In the drama of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," with "little Sappho" as Eva and Mr. Ogden as Tom, there is an aggregate of dramatic effect scarcely surpassed in the rendition of Rip Van Winkle by Mr. Jefferson. There is so much of real merit in the performance, that we do not hesitate to commend it in these strong terms. The play will be repeated to-night for the last time, for the benefit of "little Sappho."—The classical opera entitled "Lovers of Diana" will also be performed."

Tickets can be procured at Williams' Book store. The usual price of admission charged.

ELECTION IN NASH.—The news from glorious little Nash comes up firstrate, and assures us that Dr. Drake, the Conservative candidate to fill the vacancy in the House caused by Mr. Woodward's death, will be elected by an increased majority.

Recollect that next Saturday is the day of election, and let every man be out and vote. The larger the majority the better for Conservatism. Old Nash always does her duty, and she will do it well in this instance.

We acklowledge the receipt of a complimentary invitation to be present at a grand ball, to be given under the auspices of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, in Tarboro, N. C., on Monday evening December 26. As the members of this Order are always successful in every good thing they attempt, we feel satisfied that this effort will be a highly satisfactory one. We regret that our duties will debar us the privilege of being present, but we wish them all the pleasure imaginable.

We call special attention to Miss Crenshaw's boarding and day school, Louisburg. Her terms are very moderate, and she is, we learn, a thorough teacher.

Dick Oxendine and —— Ransom, were captured in Robeson county a few days ago. They are supposed to be the murderers of the Mr. Sanmders, whose disappearance we alluded to some days since.

ONE of the parties recently arrested in Columbus county, in this State, is supposed to be Dr. Lewis, the murderer of one Drummond in Brunswick county Virginia, about a year ago. Officials have telegraphed Gov. Walker for description of Lewis.

SENATOR LEHMAN AGAIN.

Our article upon this Senator in last Friday's issue, brought him to the floor of the Senate on Friday morning. He arose to a question of privilege, and stated that our article placed him in a false position; that he did not know a bill to abolish the Code Commission had ever passed the Legislature. Concluded by saying something about having us at the bar of the Senate, &c.

Mr. Lehman did not know that the bill to abolish the Code Commission had ever passed the Legislature. Mr. Lehman's ignorance of so notorious a fact is strikingly convenient just now. In view of the fact that no publication was given to the passage of, and subsequently doing away with, the act, from time to time by the press of the State; that Senator Love and others did not make a full statement of the passage of said bill, and its disappearance when the first memorial of these Commissioners was sent to the present Senate, and peremptorily rejected for the reasons set forth by Mr. Love; and that said reasons for rejecting said memorial were not published at the time; and that the very statements were not again made by Mr. Love and others on Wednesday in the hearing of Senator Lehman, when the Commission attempted to again force itself upon the consideration of the Senate; we say in the face of all this, that the Senate should profess ignorance, is, of course, not surprising. But had he have never heard of the passage of said bill; the action of the Senate immediately preceding the presentation by himself of his bill, should have restrained him from committing such a gross indelicacy, not to say indignity toward the Senate. After Senator Love had said that he did not want the Senate to recognize that Commission to the extent of formally receiving a memorial from it, for reasons which he gave, and the Senate sustained the motion of the Senator, for Mr. Lehman to adopt said memorial as his own Bill, and attempt to force it upon the consideration of the Senate, was an indignity—a downright insult—and should have been so characterized and treated.

And as to having us before the bar of the Senate, he can do so at his earliest pleasure; but we will nevertheless continue to hold him and all other officers up to public view who do not conduct themselves with that dignity, decorum and integrity which should characterize the representatives of the people.

REV. A. B. EARLE.

As is well known to the public, Rev. A. B. Earle, has recently held a series of most remarkable meetings in the Baptist Church of this city. About a hundred persons have made a public profession of religion, perhaps twice as many now bow asking the people of God to pray for them, and christians of every name have been greatly revived. Grateful to God for the good which has been done, we desire publicly to express our high appreciation of the man and his labors among us, and we know not how better to do this than to endorse the following extract from an article published in the Religious Herald of Richmond, Va., by Dr. Richard Fuller, of Baltimore, January 6th, 1870. Dr. Fuller is the foremost man among the Baptists of America, North or South.

W. Royall,	T. H. Pritchard,
P. H. Fontain,	W. B. Howell,
J. M. Alford,	E. Allison,
J. M. Heck,	J. S. Purifoy,
John Armstrong,	W. B. Royall,
P. F. Pescud,	J. L. Carroll,
Jordan Womble,	C. E. Taylor,
John G. Williams,	C. Durham,
G. W. Sanderlin.

"We have heard Mr. Earle three times, and under the serious disadvantage of a distressing cough; and we do not hesitate to pronounce him one of the ablest men we ever listened to.

But all this is comparatively little.—Brother Earle's intellectual endowments are remarkakable, and would at once be felt were he at the bar or in Congress.—The closest reasoning; the most natural wit and humor; a lively imagination; a correct taste; an intuitive insight into human nature; resources of strong native Saxon, of warm gushing emotions, of incident and narrative and illustration drawn from every quarter—these attributes and advantages he possesses and uses without any effort, with the entire self-possession which accompanies the senses of power.

His very appearance draws reverent audience. No well-trimmed moustache or goatee; no unimpeachable white vest.—He has not been before the glass, but on his knees. None of that self-consciousness which shows itself in an affected simplicity and naturalness, in the awkward attempt to be easy, to put out the hand gracefully, to modulate the voice artistically. He plainly forgets himself; and before he has uttered twenty words, the people forget the man as completely as Peter was forgotten on the day of Pentecost; they are engrossed with the truths he is proclaiming. Physical powers are of vast importance in a public speaker, and his are uncommon. A voice rich, deep, musical, resembling that of Mr. Clay. A person tall and commanding. Animal spirits inexhaustible. A terrible capacity to work and endure.

We have already spoken of brother Earle's preaching. Since hearing some fifty sermons we are more convinced of the accuracy of all we have said. And there is one element we did not mention, but which now strikes us as exerting great power; we mean the simple belief with which he is conversant among the unseen realities of the Bible. Few of us are aware of the potency of such an earnest, substantiating faith.

We will only add that brother Earle is as faithful upon the subject of baptism as any preacher can be; and that his affectionate, delicate regard for all the pastors, and the blessed influence of his spirit and his preaching on their souls, have not only made him most dear to them, but made them dearer than ever to their churches. Wherever pastors are true men this must be the effect of his ministry and of a genuine revival."

PUBLIC MEETING IN CASWELL.

At a public meeting of the citizens of Caswell county, held in the Court House in Yanceyville, N. C., on the 10th of December, 1870, on motion of Col. R. B. Withers, William Long, Esq., was called the chair. On motion of Hon. John Kerr, Dr. R. M. Roan and L. L. M. Totten were requested to act as Secretaries.

Hon. John Kerr, Col. R. B. Watt and Gen. William Lea were appointed a Committee to report resolutions for the consideration of the meeting, who, after retiring, presented through their Chairman, Hon. John Kerr, the following:

The people of Caswell are called to mourn the loss of their honored and revered fellow citizen, Col. Bedford Brown. He died suddenly, in his own chamber, in the course of the night of the 5th inst., at the advanced age of seventy-six. He has thus fallen asleep and been laid with his fathers, after having served his generation with distinguished fidelity, patriotism and ability. His neighbors and countrymen, now assembled in public meeting, appreciating his great moral worth and his matured wisdom and thorough devotion to the interests of his country, cannot withhold the expression of their deep sense of the public loss in the occurrence of his death at a crisis in public affairs so momentous as the present. Useful in council at all times, his advice and lead in the present emergency are felt to be indispensable. A long and faithful public service gave him controlling influence over the minds of a large number of the intelligent and virtuous citizens throughout the State, and in this, his native county, his suggestions were heard with the profound deference due to venerable age and the most fully tested integrity. As a neighbor no man was more beloved, and in his domestic relations he was a model of rectitude.

While bowing with meek submission to the Divine will, as expressed in his call from time to eternity, they nevertheless experience the sorrow which is natural and inevitable upon an occurrence so melancholy; and from the deep fountains of their hearts they offer this small tribute to his memory.

Resolved, That, in token of our great respect and veneration for the character of our late lamented fellow-citizen, Bedford Brown, we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That in further token of our sense of his deserts, a Committee of three be appointed by the Chairman of this meeting to select some suitable person to prepare and deliver a funeral oration on his life and character and public services to be delivered at such time and place as hereafter may be designated. Which resolutions were unanimously adopted.

On motion it was unanimously adopted that the proceedings of this meeting be furnished to the Raleigh SENTINEL with request to publish and that the Hillsboro' Recorder, and all other papers in the State be requested to copy.

The Chair appointed as the Committee, under the second resolution, Dr. N. M. Roan, Col. E. B. Withers and Yancey Jones.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

WILLIAM JONES, Ch'm.

For the Sentinel.

"A prudent man forseeth the evil and hideth himself."

And the Radicals are trying to secure a reputation for prudence. Besides the striking attempts at hiding, to which you have called attention, in the case of Judge Pearson, and of the sops thrown out to Gov. Graham, Gov. Vance, &c., &c., by the Radicals in this their time of terror, one of the "unjust stewards" up at our University seems to be making for himself friends of the mammon of unrighteousness which the negroes, &c., have put into his hands and into the hands of other carpet-baggers around us. Before the election in 1868, when these parasites were hopeful, their organ, the Standard, published a most truculent attack on Gov. Swain, holding him up to public odium as a man from whose hands was dripping the blood of his pupils, &c., &c. But now that the set up at Chapel Hill find the boots into which they have been lifted entirely too big for their spindle shanks, and that they are likely to slip off, we find one of them, Prof. Brewer, of Connecticut, distributing a pamphlet which contains a laudatory notice of Gov. Swain, prepared by him for the New England Historical and Genealogical Register. This memoir is such as might have been expected from one whose interest in its subject is merely intellectual. It is coldly written and carelessly compiled. In the first paragraph issued from this brewery, it is declared that Gov. Swain died "September 3, 1868." Had it been of much moment to the writer whether his dates were correct or incorrect, when they were connected with the career of a man whose hands were "dripping with the blood of his pupils," he might easily have learned, from even the negroes around him, that Gov. Swain died August 27, 1868. This memoir contains no allusion to what no friend of Gov. Swain, no North Carolinian of even ordinary acquaintance with the history of his native State, could have omitted, viz: Gov. Swain's connection with the turnpike that runs across the Southwestern corner of North Carolina. The establishment of this road revolutionized the social condition of that portion of our State; and was always and justly considered by Gov. Swain as constituting one of his strongest claims on the favorable consideration of his fellow citizens.

On page 5, it seems to be suggested that Gov. Swain laid aside the title of Professor of National and Constitutional law, because of the establishment of law school at the University in 1845. Had the writer been properly acquainted with what he wrote about, he would have known that Gov. Swain always declared that he was appointed President and not a Professor, that his teaching, in any department, was entirely a voluntary act on his part, so that the relinquishing the title of Professor, at any time, was but proclaiming his strictly legal relation to the Faculty. Gov. Swain always insisted on bearing a proper share of the burden of instruction at the University. But he always contended for his right to teach where, when and what he chose. So, also, when Gov. Swain accepted the Presidency it was with the distinct understanding that his opinion as to who should be, and who should not be, members of the Faculty would be almost decisive in any case. Such men as Judge Gaston and Judge Cameron held that he must select his Faculty as the Captain of a ship selected his crew. So Prof. Brewer has a hint as to how hereafter he shall interpret omission in the page that enumerates the Faculty of the University of North Carolina.

On page 6 this memoir, which evidently contains things that ought not to be remembered states that the Historical Society of N. Carolina was organized in January, 1844. January, 1844, is the date of the organization of the Historical Society of the University of North Carolina, an association which was necessarily destroyed when the Faculty that composed it was disbanded. Last summer several gentlemen, not one of whom was a member of the Historical Society of the University of North Carolina, formed another association which they call the Historical Society of North Carolina. A committee was appointed to make collections of historical interest.—But this Society has, evidently not a shadow of a claim to any of the collections of the Society of which Gov. Swain was nominally not only head but virtually the body also. Does this misstatement of the name of the Society, for which Gov. Swain labored long and earnestly, cover an attempt to grab the collections which he made? Such an attempt will be, however, only like other prudent acts of Ashley, Brewer, Martlin, & Co.

McLauchlin fell asleep when Biggs secured his pistol and shot him dead. The affair has caused great excitement and much rejoicing in Robyson county, where McLauchlin's many bloody deeds had made him a terror to all good citizens.

A company of U. S. soldiers are still in that county aiding the citizens in effecting the capture or killing of McLauchlin's confederates.

PIANO FORTES,

BALTIMORE, Md.

These Instruments have been before the Public for nearly Thirty Years, and upon their excellence alone attained an unparalleled preeminence, which pronounces them unequaled. Their combines great power, sweetness and fine singing quality, as well as great purity of Intonation, and sweetness throughout the entire scale. Their is prompt and elastic, and entirely free from the stiffness found in so many Pianos.

IN WORKMANSHIP

they are unequaled, using none but the very best SEASONED MATERIAL, the large capital employed in our business enabling us to keep continually an immense stock of lumber, &c., on hand.

☞ All our SQUARE PIANOS have our New Improved Overstrung Scale and the AGRAFFE TREBLE.

☞ We would call special attention to our late improvements in GRAND PIANOS AND SQUARE GRANDS, PATENTED AUG. 17, 1869, which bring the Piano nearer perfection than has yet been attained.

EVERY PIANO FULLY WARRANTED FOR 5 YEARS.

We have made arrangements for the Sole Wholesale Agency for the most Celebrated PARLOR ORGANS and MELODEONS, which we offer Wholesale and Retail, at Lowest Factory Prices.

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON FORFEITABLE, WHOLE LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES, on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash, with no portion of its reserve fund in premiums notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any company doing business in this State. No "definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount paid on each surrendered policy, as shown by the New York Insurance Reports, 1869, as evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred out of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends are not declared, but dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES.

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks, upon which elements of administration the security of a Life insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its Cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000,000 00, and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of Promissory Notes, as in many Companies.
3. Its Cash Income per annum is over $6,500,000 00, and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes of hand of policy holders, as is the case in many Companies.
5. It has paid to Widows and Orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000 00.
6. Such payments are made in Cash, and not partly in Cancelled Notes, as is the case in many Companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a Policy, for Premium Notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000 00, and upwards, in cash divided among Policy-Holders, (this included the dividend for the present year,) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the Stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available, as case in payment of Premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made More progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the World.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected, and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other Company in the World.
16. It issues all the regular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment Policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year, ending December 1, 1869, was $51,001,041.
18. Its Policies average larger in amount than those of any other Company, showing that Capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the insured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many Companies.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with the safety of the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business, as is the case with many new Companies.
21. It is the favorite Company in the United States, as is shown by its new business last year, being nearer $12,000,000 greater than any other Company.
